1 Define the question and context

Exposure, population, timing, and intended decision

↓

2 Examine the evidence

Biological level, method, measurement, and uncertainty

↓

3 Consider outcomes and alternatives

Symptoms, function, safety, context, and competing explanations

↓

4 Select a proportionate action

Professional scope, resources, responsibilities, and limits

↓

5 Monitor and review

Outcomes, adverse effects, new information, and revision